Langham Logistics hires Cincinnati Sales Consultant

INDIANAPOLIS (Oct. 5, 2009)--Langham Logistics, Inc., an Indianapolis-based global freight management organization, has named Carole Feeny as sales consultant who will be based out of Cincinnati. Feeny will assist in Langham's effort to expand its presence throughout the United States as well as support its current client base.

"We are pleased to welcome Carole Feeny to the Langham Logistics team," Cathy Langham, president and co-founder of Langham Logistics said. "Her knowledge and experience in sales will undeniably allow Langham to better serve our current and future customers on a higher level."

Carole started her sales career with American Express Travel Related Services in 1991 and spent the next 14 years managing several different areas including Small Business Travel, Account Development and Acquisition and Business Development for the Global Interactive Travel Group. In 2005, Carole started her own consulting company. Feeny ran her business for two years and then decided on a more corporate route. Feeny then joined Jefferson Well International, where she worked for two years before coming to Langham.
